V. COMMITTEE REPORTS
A. Benefits Committee Report – Prescription Drug Plan
1. Management of Select Unapproved Products
Mr. Mizuno summarized the Management of Select Unapproved Products and the recommendation by the Benefits Committee for the Board to approve to add the Management of Select Unapproved Product program. Discussion was held by the Trustees, staff, benefits consultant, CVS Health regarding non FDA approved products, and why HSTA VB plans are excluded

MOTION was made to approve the Benefits Committee recommendation to add the Management of Select Unapproved Products program for EUTF active employee prescription drug plans, excluding the HSTA VB plans, effective April 1, 2017. (Pressler/Currivan Musto) The motion passed unanimously. (Employer Trustees-3/Employee-Beneficiary Trustees-4)

2. Brand Step Therapy Programs
Mr. Mizuno reported there is no recommendation from the Committee until additional information is presented and for the full Board to hear the presentation.
Ms. Sandra Benevides and Kurt Neuenfeld presented the Brand Step Therapy Program. Discussion held by the Trustees, staff, benefits consultant, and CVS Health regarding the procedures for members using the Brand Step Therapy Program, prior authorizations, no grandfathering for this program, and where savings would be generated. The Benefits Committee did change the notification by mail/fax from 30 to 60 days. Trustees expressed concerns that members must try all prerequisite alternatives and that grandfathering and grace fills are not available.
Ms. Sarah Smith from CVS Health presented additional information requested by the Board regarding another client’s experience. Ms. Benevides from CVS Health provided statistics for 10,000 impacted members. Discussion held by the Trustees, staff, benefits consultant and CVS Health regarding rebates and if CVS Health is communicating and working with the physicians in the network. Ms. Benevides summarized the timeframe for prior authorizations.

After discussion by the Trustees, this item is deferred.

3. 2017 Standard Formulary
For the Board’s information, CVS Health presented education on the different formulary options for the EUTF plans at the Benefits Committee meeting.
